

Why under organic feed are only feed grains listed? I have certified organic hay, why can't I be listed?

The list of feed grains initially was developed because of Farm Bill and Appropriations language requiring a study to ascertain the availability of feed grains for livestock and poultry producers concerned about a shortage of corn and soybeans. At the time it was developed feed grains were the specific topic. If you would like to be listed, submit your information to:

Barbara C. Robinson
Acting Director, National Organic Program
1400 Independence Avenue, SW STOP 0268
Washington DC 20250-0268

e-CFR